PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

In 2007, we not only celebrated two world champions in Jana Rawlinson (400m hurdles) and Nathan Deakes (50km walk), we had a World Walking Challenge victory to Luke Adams and a heap of outstanding performances, including four medals, from our young guns at the World Youth Championships in Ostrava.

Kurt Fearnley continued to dominate the international wheelchair racing circuit with 10 marathon wins out of 11 races. He also won a world title in the 1500m at the Osaka World Championships and the prestigious 10km road race in Atlanta.

We recently crowned our world champions, Jana and Nathan, with the 2007 Athlete of the Year titles alongside Kurt and another top AWD athlete Amanda Fraser; a host of other awards recognised our great athletes, coaches, media, officials and volunteers.

We have an exciting domestic season underway with several National Series meets, the Grand Prix meet in Sydney and the World Athletics Tour meet in Melbourne, culminating at the Australian Athletics Championships and Selection Trials in Brisbane. Our athletes will all be striving for Olympic Games selection with some fantastic international stars such as Asafa

Powell, Jeremy Wariner, Michael Frater, Darrel Brown and Sherone Simpson all confirmed to compete in Australia – which will hopefully push our Australian stars to Olympic qualifiers.

Though we ended 2007 without Telstra, our principal sponsor of seven years, I would like to warmly acknowledge the support of the Australian Sports Commission. Athletics in Australia, by world standards, is still enormously under-funded with many countries now placing an incredible amount of funding and resources into their track and field programs. Australia needs to keep pace with these countries if we are to remain competitive on the world stage.

However, rest assured Athletics Australia is working hard to fill what is a very valuable sponsorship property for a corporate partner.

The healthy partnerships we have with Asics, Novotel, SBS, Healthe, the Australian Olympic Committee, the Australian Paralympic Committee and the Australian Commonwealth Games Association are also very important to us and, of course, their support is always appreciated.

I thank our athletes, coaches, families and supporters for the year that's been and wish you all the very best for a successful summer, the road to Beijing and your athletics goals into the future.
