PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As we close the chapter on 2024, it's impossible not to marvel at the milestones achieved by Australian athletics this year. From record-breaking performances to inspirational moments on the world stage, this year has been a testament to the strength, dedication, and talent that define our sport.

It's clear we are witnessing an unprecedented era of excellence, driven by a generation of athletes and coaches who continue to elevate Australian athletics to new heights.

This generation of elite Australian athletes stands tall among the greatest in our history, with the Paris Olympic and Paralympic Games showcasing extraordinary performances for Australian athletics that will live on in our collective memory.

From Nina Kennedy soaring to win Australia's first Olympic gold medal in the pole vault, to James Turner's record-breaking dominance in the 100m and 400m T36, securing two gold medals and setting a new world record, to Vanessa Low's inspiring world record in the Long Jump T61, our athletes continually redefined excellence. Let's not forget Jessica Hull's performance at the Monaco Diamond League, when she set a new world record of 5:19.70 over 2000m, setting her up for further success in Paris.

The World Under 20 Championships also captivated the community, with the next generation of Australian stars taking centre stage. Their determination and success, with a total of 14 medals, and 28 finalists promise a thriving pathway for our sport as we look towards Brisbane 2032.

It wasn't just on Australian teams or abroad that our athletes continued to thrive. On home soil during the 2024 domestic season, a number of our elite athletes made their mark. Matthew Denny broke the Australian discus record, becoming the first athlete to throw further than 69-metres, while Mali Lovell continued her ascent, breaking the 200m T36 record on multiple occasions.

While there are too many athletes and records to mention, the efforts of our athletes and their teams underscore the depth of talent within Australian athletics and the achievements detailed in this almanac stand as a testament to the countless hours of dedication from all within our community.

To every individual who has contributed to these triumphs, we extend our heartfelt thanks and congratulations. Your unwavering commitment and passion form the backbone of Australian athletics.

I also wish to express my gratitude to those who make this almanac possible. Peter Hamilton, Brian Roe, Paul Jenès, and Ronda Jenkins dedicate their time and expertise to meticulously record the history of our sport, ensuring its legacy endures for future generations.

Our deepest thanks also go to our partners—the Australian Sports Commission, the AIS, the Australian Olympic Committee, Paralympics Australia, Commonwealth Games Australia, World Athletics, World Para Athletics, the Oceania Athletics Association, Athletics International, our State and Territory Member Associations, and our major commercial partners in PUMA, Chemist Warehouse, and Rio Tinto. Together, we continue to propel our sport to greater heights.

As we turn the page to 2025, let us remember the achievements listed within this almanac and anticipate the incredible moments yet to come. With the passion and strength of athletes and coaches as well as our staff and volunteers, and the support of our partners, the future of Australian athletics shines brighter than ever.
