ATHLETICS AUSTRALIA

FOREWORD

The past twelve months have been highly successful for Australian athletics. The Commonwealth Games provided the highlight of the year with outstanding performances from Cathy Freeman, Steve Moneghetti, Nicole Boegman, Werner Reiterer, Tim Forsyth and Alison Inverarity, just to name a few.

The highlight of this athletics year will be the IAAF World Championships, to be held in Gothenburg, Sweden in early August. This year will see a record number of athletes represent Australia and with that comes the promise of a record medal haul.

The World Championships are also likely to become the stage which will launch many of our outstanding young athletes into the international spotlight. James Miller, Jane Jamieson, Brendan Hanigan, Ricky Nalatu, Jai Taurima and Mark Ladbrook are just some of the up and coming Australian stars who will tackle their first World Championships.

We wish them and the entire Optus Australian Track & Field Team all the very best for a most successful World Championships.

This handbook is a vital tool for all coaches, athletes, administrators and the media and provides them with concise information on past and present achievements in athletics.

Our thanks is extended to Chevron Publishing Pty. Ltd. and the sponsors of Athletics Australia who have contributed to this publication.

Lack Endurance? Lack Energy? Lack Stamina?

Two products that work together to give the maximum benefit to your athletic performance are Nature's Way Cozyme Q10 and Nature's Way Energy Nutrients.

Nature's Way
Health Products

Coenzyme Q10 is an essential micro-nutrient that works with the energy centre of cells. Deficiencies of this nutrient may leave you feeling tired, flat and without energy.

Energy Nutrients contains ingredients such as Octacosanol, Pollen, Royal Jelly, Ginseng plus essential vitamins and minerals to give energy.

These products when taken together may improve stamina, endurance, susceptibility to fatigue and assist in energy production.

Available where health supplements are sold.
