PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Athletics Australia has enjoyed another year of great success in 2021, and it is with great pleasure that we present our Handbook of Records and Results for the period.

After the Olympic and Paralympic Games were delayed for the first time in history, our athletes, coaches, staff, officials and our volunteers had the Tokyo Games imprinted on their minds, and that focus and determination resulted in many great achievements both domestically and abroad.

As a team, we had our second-best performance at the Olympic Games in history, with three medals won. Some of the highlights included Nicola McDermott's Australian record of 2.02m which saw her claim silver, as well as Ash Moloney taking Australia's first ever medal, a bronze, in the Olympic decathlon and Kelsey-Lee Barber throwing a season's best to claim bronze in the women's javelin.

At the Paralympic Games, the Australian team delivered two world records, 12 area records, five Paralympic Games records, plus of course four gold, seven silver and eight bronze medals. The gold medals won by Madison de Rozario in the 800m T53 and marathon T54, as well as Vanessa Low's world record jump in the T61 and James Turner's 400m T36 gold were moments that will go down in this book as truly unforgettable.

I speak on behalf of the entire Australian athletics community when I congratulate all athletes who represented our country this year and recognise the contribution made by all coaches, officials, volunteers and wider support teams to enable our athletes to compete to the best of their ability.

It was also rewarding to collaborate again with our member associations throughout the Australian Summer of Athletics, which culminated with the Australian Track and Field Championships in Sydney. The season provided crucial competition opportunities and again, we saw world class results take place on the Australian circuit and so many of our Olympic and Paralympic qualifiers.

On behalf of the Australian athletics community, I would like to thank four of our Life Governors, the renowned statistician Peter Hamilton, as well as Athletics Australia Statistician Paul Jenes, Athletics Australia Records Officer Ronda Jenkins and Brian Roe for their efforts in producing this compendium.

I'd also like to take this opportunity to recognise the support of the Australian Sports Commission and Sports Australia. Their generous acknowledgement of what we do is the reason we are able to achieve in high performance and we are extremely appreciative.

Additionally, the unwavering support we enjoy from the Australian Olympic Committee, Paralympics Australia, Commonwealth Games Australia, World Athletics, World Para Athletics, the Oceania Athletics Association and Athletics International is always appreciated. We are also grateful to our partners, including the Australian Institute of Sport, Coles, PUMA, Accor, and Weet-Bix as well as our State and Territory Member Associations, Australian Masters Athletics and Little Athletics Australia.

Last but not least, I thank our athletes, coaches, their families and supporters for their continuing commitment to the growth and development of our sport in Australia and look forward to celebrating more success in 2022, with the World Athletics Championships, Commonwealth Games and the World Para Athletics Championships all ahead of us.
